Wrinkles

Around the Eyes

Are usually caused by defective sight. Many women, and likewise men, look prematurely old from these wrinkles. The wrinkles in many cases can be removed by wearing correctly fitted glasses. To fit glasses correctly demands a thorough knowledge of refraction and the necessary instruments. We have both; hundreds of satisfied customers will say so.

TWO MURDERERS IN JAIL.

Will Guilford Have Another Double Hanging?

There are now two murderers in Guilford county jail, the fate of both being, as yet, uncertain. Sam Lucas, it will be remembered, was sentenced by Judge Robinson to be hanged on September 29th, but an appeal was taken to the supreme court. And here the matter rests. It is thought that the case will not come up at this term of the court and that Sam's life will be spared for some time to come. Up to the 29th of September, Sam spent about half his time reading the Bible and praying. He was glad of the chance to talk to anyone, and spoke to everyone who came into the jail. But now he is a changed man. His beard has grown long; the novelty of Bible reading and praying has worn off, to a great degree, and Sam seldom speaks to anyone. He knows nothing of when he will be tried, and will say nothing about being hanged.

The other murderer is Macon Smitherman, who, as told in yesterday's Telegram, killed Harry Palmer in High Point Sunday. Smitherman will be tried at the December term of court here. He evidently intends to make a hard fight for life as he has employed four lawyers, Major Stedman, Will P. Ragan and G. Sam Bradshaw, of this city, and Lawyer Steele, of High Point, to represent him at the trial.

It is thought the defense will try to prove that the defendant shot Palmer in self defense, but Smitherman told a Telegram reporter yesterday that the shooting was accidental. Since, however, he has refused to talk about the killing, at all. At present it looks as though the state will have a clear case and it is probable that Guilford will ere long have another double hanging.

THE LITTLE SINNER.

A Good Play, Presented to a Full House, Last Night.

The fact that Emma Myrkle was to play at the Academy last night, made the people expect a splendid performance, and they were not disappointed. The house was packed—every seat taken and only standing room left in the gallery. Miss Myrkle, of course, played the title role in "The Little Sinner" and her every movement was applauded. Will Harder, played the part of the farm hand to perfection. George R. Robinson as Josiah Beach, Francis J. Bryant as Harry Stooks and E. M. LeRoy as Walter Bruman, were all good and their parts were well rendered. Mr. J. Howard Benton as Job Bingle played his part well, but his part was not such as would endear him to an audience, except from the "no fool, no fun" view. Miss Marie LeRoy is a splendid actress and played the parts of the French maid and Samantha Beach to good advantage.

The specialties by Miss Myrkle and Mr. Harder were entirely new and exceedingly fine. Francis J. Bryant, in his original songs, is one of the best comedians on the road and kept the audience in a roar of laughter, during the first and second acts.

Tonight "My Friend from India" will be presented. New specialties between acts.

The Big Sale.

The new dry goods store of D. Bendheim and Sons, had a big day yesterday owing to the long list of bargains printed in their half page advertisement in this paper Saturday and Monday. The sale will continue all of this week, and it will therefore be to your advantage to file yesterday's paper, as later on in the week you may want some of the many choice bargains there mentioned.

Catholic Rights.

Rome, Nov. 22.—The Pope yesterday received Monsignor Keane, who has just returned from his mission to Washington, which was connected with the reservation rights of the Catholic church in the Philippines. Keane reports favorable results which were largely achieved through the conference between Archbishop Ireland and President McKinley.

Picquet Before the Court.

London, Nov. 22.—A Paris despatch to the Exchange Telegraph says that Picquet will be summoned before the court of cassation today.

NEXT SESSION IN CONCORD.

The Western Conference Nearing a Close.

ADVOCATE COMMISSION ELECTED

Members Chosen are Favorable to Dr. Crawford—A "Cigarette Resolution" Was Defeated.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Winston, Nov. 22.—The matter of electing the commission on the part of the Western North Carolina Conference with reference to the adoption of a conference organ for the ensuing year came up today. Dr. Crawford won, and the following were elected members of the commission: C. W. Byrd and J. H. Weaver, clerical; Butterick and Robbins, lay.

The next session of the conference will be held in Concord.

A resolution denouncing the use of cigarettes was defeated by a vote of 65 to 62.

Murder in Danville.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Danville, Va., Nov. 22.—This afternoon a white man named Queen was shot and instantly killed by a negro, who in attempting to escape was run down by a policeman, the negro showed fight and tried to shoot the officer but his pistol failed to go off. The officer then shot and instantly killed the negro.

ENGLISH PAPERS COMMENT.

Satisfied With the Intentions of the United States.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Nov. 22.—Most of the afternoon papers comment upon and express satisfaction at the "open door" intentions of the United States in regard to the Philippine Islands. The Pall Mall Gazette says that whatever may happen, Porto Rico will eventually become one of the states themselves. America's colonial policy in the Pacific is an open door. Its wise decisions on every ground in the interest of prosperity in the Philippines will secure the good will of all nations which are really friendly to America in the Pacific. The security of the two English speaking nations is thereby definitely assured.

JUST FOR RECREATION.

But Will Not Commit Himself on The Nicaragua Question.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Nov. 22.—President Iglesias, of Costa Rica, arrived here today. With a large company among whom was Col. Carter, assistant adjutant general, went down the bay to meet him. He said his visit was purely for recreation. He will visit the president while in this country. On the Nicaraguan canal question he spoke with great care and it was evident he did not want to commit himself as to the probable action of the Costa Rica government on the concession granted by the Nicaragua congress in giving the Grace syndicate the right to complete the Nicaragua canal.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor. Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C. Nov. 22

It was reported by the passengers on No. 7 last night that some one fired a pistol through a window of the car but evidence could not be gained as to who did the shooting.

We felt "kinner scairt" this morning when the breakfast train came in, on the platform of the cars were men with axes, ball bats and guns and coupled on the rear end was Geo. W. Vanderbilt's private car.

The Greensboro Record of yesterday says: "High Point is progressing, at least that is what is said of a town that is growing fast—that murders, etc. are a part of it." The first sentence of the above is correct, but as to the latter part of the above, we will say that that may be case in some towns, but not so here. There has never been but five people who met their death from any disturbance of this kind. The first case happened shortly after the civil war near the depot, one hobo killed another. The second case was "Mountain Steve" killing a man who was trying to enter his house about fifteen years ago. The third was a negro man by the name of Watts, who was sentenced to fifteen years in the penitentiary for beating a woman so that she died afterwards, about seven years ago the fourth case was Will Blackman killing Randall Williams in a fight about five years ago, and the last case was the killing last Sunday. All except the first case were colored. With this small number of deaths, one way and another, we cannot see how that "murders etc." are part of the progress.

Ten dollars is offered to anyone who will read the sign on the Enterprise window.

The Democratic club met last night and passed resolutions to continue organization, and adjourned to meet at the call of the president.

Rev. William Black one of the most powerful evangelists that has ever been here returned to his home at Monroe this morning. Much good has been accomplished during his meeting here. Much interest was taken in the meeting, and it resulted in 125 conversions. Tonight and tomorrow night, the doors of the church will be open for membership.

The new furniture company mentioned last week was organized last night, with a capital stock of $20,000. The style of the firm will be the Union Furniture company. The stock holders are Messrs J. H. Willis, J. N. Campbell, J. A. Lindsey, A. R. Hammer, J. A. Newton, J. J. Farris, F. M. Pickett, J. L. Seohrest, Geo. A. Matton, J. A. Clinnard, E. A. Youns, A. M. Rankin, E. M. Armfield, Dr. J. A. Turner, W. P. Pickett and J. B. Best.

SHIP BUILDERS' TRUST.

Greedy, Grasping and Grinding, Will Grip The Government.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Four great ship builders have practically formed a trust and the navy department will have to modify its plans or conform to the increase in the price of monitors. The firms composing the pool are the Union Iron Works, of San Francisco; the Bath Shipbuilding Works; Lewis Nixon, Elizabeth, N. J., and the Newport News Company.

The Seas Running High.

London, Nov. 22.—An easterly gale is raging in the English Channel and advice received from Calois says the seas are running high and that steamboats from Dover are unable to enter the harbor.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Nov. 22.—The war department is disinclined to use the old Spanish barracks in Cuba. It is thought new barracks will be built.

AGAINST EXTRA SESSION.

To Consider Spanish Treaty at The Long Term,

REPUBLICANS ARE NOT ANXIOUS

To Get The Peace Treaty Through At This Session—Want to Keep The War Issues Alive.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Representative Brownlow, of Tennessee, is among the late congressional arrivals from the south. The Representative does not believe that there will be an extra session of congress. The work of the coming session, he says, will be confined to general appropriation bills, and matters of general importance. As to the Spanish situation, he does not believe that the treaty will be framed in time for consideration by the senate at the short session, but he thinks it will go over, together with matters respecting the government of the new territories added to the United States within the past year, until the regular session of the Fifty-Sixth Congress.

The feeling among republicans is strongly against an extra session of congress, and is in favor of the consideration of any Spanish treaty which may be concluded by the peace commissioners at the long session. In any event, if it should be found advisable to have the treaty ratified without delay, then all that would be necessary would be to call the senate in extra session.

Representative Berry, of Kentucky, is another prominent arrival in Washington. He arrived yesterday, and went to the Wellington hotel where he will stop for the present. Mr. Berry is a democrat, and as he says, is not familiar with the republican policy which will be followed during the short session, and furthermore he says that he has not been in Washington long enough to form a correct judgment as to national affairs, but from what he has read in the papers, he thinks that there will not be an extra session. Republicans are not anxious to get the peace treaty through this session. Their idea is he says to consider it at the long session would adjourn just before the presidential election in the hopes that the issues of the war can thus be kept alive, and would serve to supplant the silver question as the chief issue in 1900, which is so much desired by the leaders of the Federal administration.

Senator Morgan, of Alabama, was among the visitors at the white house yesterday afternoon. He was with the president and secretary Alger in conference over matters concerning the government of Hawaii, when the news was received that Senator Rios had withdrawn from the peace negotiations. Senator Morgan shortly after the receipt of the bulletin emerged from the president's office into the reception room, where he was met by a little group of newspaper men. The Senator gave his opinion that the withdrawal of Rios does not necessarily mean a resumption of the Spanish war, and he doubts very much if Spain will care to renew hostilities. The Senator thought that, as yet, there is very little, or no evidence that the negotiations will be broken. The joint commission at Paris has adjourned until Wednesday, and all that can be done by the administration is to await developments.

A cabinet officer is quoted as expressing the opinion that Spain may intend to merely let the United States step in and take the Philippines, offering no resistance, but at the same time refusing to sign any treaty of agreement.

Mr. and Mrs. Whittemore, who are prominent in Washington society, were at the Arlington Hotel for the past week, having given up their home here, preparatory to going for a short visit to Massachusetts. In a few weeks they will start on a journey south, going first to Asheville, N. C., and after spending a week or so there, they will continue their journey leisurely taking in the various winter resorts of the south as far as Palm Beach, Florida.

Governor-elect Stone, of Pennsylvania, was in the city for a short time the other day. Accompanied by Mrs. Stone and their little child, he has gone for a visit to North Carolina for recreation, to be absent about ten days. Among prominent North Carolina people in Washington are Messrs. J. C. Weddington and wife; J. L. Ludlow, Winston; E. T. Garrett and wife, Greensboro; A. J. Galloway and wife and Miss Stronach, of Raleigh.

ANOTHER TACK.

Time Extended on Bids For Cars and Electric Lights.

At the special meeting of the board of aldermen last night after some discussion the bids as filed by the Greensboro Gas and Electric Light Company and the Maryland Manufacturing and Construction Company were rejected and the whole matter postponed until the regular meeting on Friday night when either new or amended bids will be received.

It is understood that Mr. C. C. Howell, president of the Knoxville Street Railway company, will put in a bid, and it is likely the other two companies will renew their bids. It is perhaps wise that no undue haste is being used in this matter. It is of great importance to this city, which is now at the turning point. Which way it will turn depends entirely upon the action of the board of aldermen, its custodians, who hold its destiny in their hands.

A Colossal Trust.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Nov. 22.—The Birmingham Post learns that negotiations have begun between certain prominent houses London and New York for the formation of a colossal trust, the purpose of which will be for operating financially and commercially Cuba and the Philippines.

St. Paul, Nov. 22.—The snowstorm continued throughout the night and the wind is still piling drifts. All electric lines are tied up and branch railways are especially so.

THAT "WARM" TIME.

It has been warm in conference today at Winston if there is anything in signs. Saturday objection was raised to re-electing Dr. Crawford editor of the Advocate and a fight was imminent when it went over to today.

The objection was made by a director of Trinity, and as a strong Kilgo man said, "no man can fight Trinity and live," it is easy to see what is ailed at.

In other words, if you don't recognize Kilgo as the whole shooting match, you can't play in our back yard.

What trash, what rot! But perhaps after all the Western Conference will not go so far as Dr. Kilgo's friends think. What was the use of raising more trouble after having accepted the olive branch?

Some men don't know when they have enough. May be they will learn it.—Greensboro Record of yesterday.

There is about as much truth in the impression made by the above as there is elegance in its expression. We were present at the discussion yesterday and there was nothing in it to warrant the above cheap attempt at being funny. Dr. Kilgo was not mentioned and there was no attempt by any one to bring him or his name into the discussion of the Advocate. Trinity college and its president were highly endorsed by the conference on Saturday. He needs no higher commendation.

Since the Record so unjustly and unfairly tries to leave the impression that the friends of Trinity College were trying to murder Dr. Crawford, we will refer to the incident which brought out all the "heat" manifested. Dr. Byrd, in championing Dr. Crawford's cause, said that a man who had entered into an agreement that there would be no opposition to an endorsement of Dr. Crawford was behind the movement opposing him (using words to that effect), whereupon Mr. W. R. Odell (the man alluded to) promptly and in an emphatic manner corrected Dr. Byrd, who withdrew the statement and apologized for having made it.

The "opposition" was conducted by men of the highest character, led by Rev. Dr. James Atkins. To impute to such men impure, corrupt and subsidized motives is basely unjust to those true, tried and honored ministers of the gospel. They are men who have convictions which are their own, and they favored electing a commission because, as it was expressed, "the Christian Advocate does not seem to give general satisfaction." The discussion was conducted in a quiet, dignified manner and there was no "trash" or "rot" in it. It was a difference between men who held honest opinions.

Dr. Crawford made a powerful and eloquent appeal in his own behalf which was admired and openly complimented by the "other side." Now, if you want any further evidence as to who was most eager to apply force or gag rule, a man who is not a member of the conference, the editor of a paper, and a man who is most active and energetic in denouncing Dr. Kilgo and who had taken a seat among the ministers and delegates, at the close of Dr. Crawford's speech, called for the question. Whose back yard gate was opened in that case? Was that Dr. Kilgo's friends claiming him as the "whole shooting match?"

And while we are on this subject we will say we have no patience with those soul-mouthed blackguards who are continually abusing Dr. Kilgo and other Methodist ministers of North Carolina. A man who will attack and alk privately of the character and life of a true Christian man, as we have heard in this city and elsewhere, and occasionally in a so-called newspaper, which, we rejoice to say, is not printed in this place, is a snivelling coward. It is a sad commentary on the civilization of today that ministers of the gospel are not free from the abuse and slander of such cringing cowards and blasphemers.

THE ADVOCATE RESOLUTION.

Adopted By the Western N. C. Conference Yesterday.

As many of our readers are interested in the matter of a conference organ, we print the resolution of the Western conference on that subject, passed at yesterday's session of the conference in Winston. It is as follows:

We recommend the continuance and support of the "North Carolina Advocate" as the organ of the Western North Carolina Conference, and recommend the appointment of Rev. L. W. Crawford to the editorship of the same.

Resolved 2, That we recommend the election, by ballot, of a commission of two ministers and two laymen to meet a like commission which we request the North Carolina Conference to appoint to confer with Dr. L. W. Crawford, and other stockholders and to have, if possible, the ownership of the North Carolina Advocate transferred to the two North Carolina Conferences and if this arrangement can be effected that this joint commission be authorized to elect an editor for the present conference year, and to provide for the business management of the Advocate for the ensuing conference year.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 21.—A special to the News from Montgomery, Ala., says:

Senator Allen Recognizes Him As One of Greatest Living Statesmen.

Omaha, Neb., November 21.—Senator Wm. V. Allen writes a letter to the Press, saying he intends to remain in Nebraska after he completes his term in the United States Senate and denying the report that he had accepted a position as general solicitor for an eastern railway.

Senator Allen also denied the report set forth that there was an estrangement between himself and Colonel William Jennings Bryan. He says: "There is absolutely nothing upon which to base the assertion. The wish is evidently father of the thought. I recognize in him one of the greatest living American statesmen and shall be for him in 1900."

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

The Army Food.

"How was the food?" asked the chairman of the investigation board. "Well," replied the officer, about the nearest thing I can compare it to is the stuff you get to eat when you are camping out with a summer party.—Philadelphia North American.

A Clever Trick.

It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anybody can try it who has lame back or weak kidneys, malaria or nervous troubles. We mean he can cure himself right away by using Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system, acts as a stimulant to liver and kidneys, is a blood purifier and nerve tonic. It cures constipation, headache, fainting spells, sleeplessness and melancholy. It is purely vegetable, a mild laxative, and restores the system to its natural vigor. Try Electric Bitters and be convinced that they are a miracle worker. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c a bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

WHITES RULE GREENVILLE.

The Town Passes Quietly Under Their Control.

Greenville, N. C., Nov. 21.—Negroes no longer control Greenville, the town government having today passed into the hands of white men. The change was made quietly and peaceably, so quietly in fact that few people were aware of what was going on until it had been accomplished and white policemen appeared on the streets.

Two of the negro councilmen resigned
and a special meeting of the board elected white men to succeed them. The white chief had already become uneasy
and resigned.

The change in the councilmen made it consist of four white men and two negroes; just the reverse of how it formerly stood, and the first work of the new board was to dismiss the negro assistant policemen and elect two white officers, who went on duty at once.—Special to News and Observer.

A Sure Sign of Croup.

Hoarseness in a child that is subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamber-after the croupy cough has appeared,

it will prevent the attack. Many mothkeep this remedy at hand and find that it saves them much trouble and

HE FOOLED THE JURY

A LAWYER'S CLEVER TRICK THAT SAVED HIS CLIENT.

The Rascal on Trial Was Guilty and Proved So Beyond a Doubt, but the Shrewd Lawyer Found a Way to Win His Case.

When Colorado was organized as a territory, there was little English used outside of Denver and the mining camps. The rest of the thinly scattered country was as Spanish as any part of our latest America. Not Castilians, of course—more likely a general mixture of Aztec and Apache and a lot of other strains of blood, but certainly Spanish in name and in speech. "The government recognized that it had a difficult task before it in bringing these 'greasers' to understand the very beginning of the obligations and the duties of their American citizenship. One of the most trusted agents in this campaign of education was Judge Hallett, who was put in charge of the judicial system of the new territory. From that time to this he has been at the head of the federal judiciary in the great and prosperous state of Colorado. Despite this fierceness of rebuke and countless oddities of temper no judge has ever been so respected as he along the great divide.

When he first went on circuit, the bar left Denver with him and traveled in a body both for sociability and for safety.
There was no railroad, the only means of reaching any place from any other being along a slightly marked trail barely passable for horses. By slow stages the bench and the bar reached Trinidad under the cold shadows of the Sangre de Cristo range. These Spanish names were an incessant annoyance to Judge Hallett, who declaimed against each one in turn and announced his purpose of memorializing the secretary of the interior to have them all made American. Of a piece with this was his attitude toward the prevailing Spanish speech of the country. He objected to it. Among the first rules of his court was that which provided that all the transactions should be in English, and that if litigants objected to the work of the sworn interpreter that was their own lookout. It might encourage them to learn to talk "American," as they ought.

In Trinidad Colonel Taylor of the bar was retained for the defense in a case where no defense was possible.
The place was full of witnesses who had seen the deed done, whatever it may have been, for that is unimportant.
The prosecuting attorney put on witness after witness to prove the facts.
He made a perfect case, and he demanded that full punishment be inflicted. It was a difficult situation for Colonel Taylor. His client was guilty beyond a doubt. Cross examination of the witnesses could only make that fact more distinct, and for that reason he did nothing so foolish. The case was altogether Spanish. Criminal witnesses, audience—there were not six words of English in the whole outfit. The interpreter had been called on for every word which had gone back and forth throughout the trial. Colonel Taylor arose to make his plea. He surveyed the cluster of dark faces which filled the shed in which the court was sitting.
"Caballeros," he began—"caballeros
del jurado!"

There was a loud whacking of the gavel by Judge Hallett as soon as he caught the sound of the language which he despised so heartily.

"Mr. Taylor, Mr. Taylor," he shouted, "as a member of the bar of this court you must be aware that all its transactions must be conducted in the English language, the language of this country. If I thought that you were using Spanish maliciously, I should punish you soundly for such contempt of this court. You will address this court of the United States in United States and in no other speech, language or dialect."

"I bow to your honor's ruling," continued Colonel Taylor and resumed his plea, but in English and with the assistance of the interpreter. He told the grosser jury how the sight of their proud Castilian lineaments had caused him to forget a rule of the court and to address them in the sonorous speech of Spain, from which their proud forefathers came. He obeyed the judge, but he felt the restraint of having to make his pleading through the assistance of the interpreter. It was a simple matter which he could set right in a few sentences of their own language, but he feared that in English he could not do so well; yet he hoped that they would not see a fellow citizen punished solely for the reason that his advocate was not allowed to address a Spanish jury in their own tongue. Harping on this theme, he avoided any discussion of the evidence which bore so heavily on his client, and in his peroration he paid a glowing tribute to the language of Don Quixote and Queen Isabella. This done, he fled from the spot and was not seen
until court had arisen for the day.

When they next met, the prosecuting attorney wanted to know why he had not been on hand to receive congratulations on the acquittal of his client.

"They set him free without a stain
on his character and without their seat
and it was all due to your Spanish.
Why didn't you wait? You're the hero of the whole population."

"That's just the trouble," rejoined Colonel Taylor. "I knew they'd acquit that rascal and then they'd fall all over me with their Spanish. I just naturally had to hide. Those three words that Judge Hallett choked me off on, that's all the Spanish I ever knew in my life.
I couldn't afford to be congratulated."

"Soot Free."

Soot is the equivalent of the Anglo-Saxon word "seest," meaning taxation, therefore "soot free" originally meant
"free from the payment of taxes," and now it has become a general expression
for freedom from anything.

From New Zealand.

Reefton, New Zealand, Nov. 23, 1896.

I am very pleased to state that since I took the agency of Chamberlain's medicines the sale has been very large, more especially of the Cough Remedy. In two years I have sold more of this particular remedy than of all other makes for the previous five years. As to its efficacy, I have been informed by scores of persons of the good result they have received from it, and know its value from the use of it in my own household. It is so pleasant to take that we have to place the bottle beyond the reach of the children.

They Resented the Kick.

Squire Pritchett had a big case for adjudication yesterday in which Geo.
Barber and John, Ran, and Newton Stack were tried for and convicted of assault and battery. The fight occurred Sunday, near Pomona, between the three Stacks, Geo Barber and his "yaller dawg." Newton Stack kicked Geo's dog and Geo and the dog resented it, while John and Ran Stack assisted Newton to resist the attack.
Squire discharged all but Newton Stack on payment of the cost. He fined the latter $1 extra for the kick.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietary of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine, and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are surely cured by it. Call on C. E. Holton,

"Within the bright lexicon of youth There's no such word as fail."
—Richelieu.

Mrs. Jane Hopkins, the inventor, designer and original tailoress of the world-famous "Mrs. Jane Hopkins' Boys' Clothes," fully appreciated the value of the admonition of the great French Prelate-Statesman, quoted above, for, after years of tireless devotion to the subject of "good-looking and wear-resisting boys' clothes," she subsequently evolved the principle of construction, which has not only made her an enviable reputation, but blessed by mothers of boys throughout the land.

The Mrs. Jane Hopkins' boys' clothes differ from the ordinary sort in so many ways that they really beggar description, only a personal investigation of their "fine points" can properly convey to the minds of the intelligent American mothers their enormous superiority over every other sort.

Mrs. Jane Hopkins' Boys' Clothes are made as nearly indestructible as garments made from woolen fabrics possibly can be.

They are guaranteed by the makers and sellers to give absolute satisfaction.

Not too Cold Nor too Hot.

Winter is at hand, Christmas draws near, when up-to-date merchants add to their stock every article appropriate to the season and see that only the best gets into their stores, because the people want only that kind at this season. In fact, it is never too cold nor too hot, but especially a good time now, to sell the best, for the people will chew Home Plate tobacco, and the live merchants sell it. See another column for their names.

The Warscope.

The warscope entertainment, which is to be given at the Normal College on Thursday night, is the same as a projectoscope, though most of the views are of war scenes. The Greatest Clothing Sale

$20,000 Worth of Clothing

Must Be Sold in the Next 30 Days

50 pr ct. less than Manufacturers Cost

Sale To Open

WEDNESDAY, November 23.

This stock is representing the production of one of the best and most popular Eastern clothing manufacturers, who finds himself today badly entangled financially, pushed to the very well of ruin, and must save his honorable name at all hazards. You must remember that this is no idle boast nor a statement of a fanciful mind, but we mean to substantiate every syllable we utter. We positively guarantee that our All Wool Clay Worsted Mens Suit for $6.50 must be as good in every detail as the kind sold here for $13.50. An all wool up to date Kersey suit for $5.50 must match any one sold for $12.50. The all wool Cashmere for $3.50 must surpass the $8 kind you get elsewhere. Our $2.50 suit must look as good and wear as good as any $6.50 suit in this market. Covered Cloth and Blue Kersey Overcoats for $4.50 and $5.00 we are satisfied to guarantee to be actually the same as the $10 and $12 goods sold by every retail dealer. Pants for 75 cents, $1 and $1.75 will take place of the best $1.75, $2.25 and $3.00 goods. If you don't find them as we say, bring them back and you shall get your money.

REMEMBER

this is your first, and possibly the last chance in your entire lifetimes, to purchase your clothing direct from the manufacturer at such ridiculously low prices. You are all invited to come, and must come early, for the goods will move fast and you don't want to miss it, the only thing left.

Remember the place. Our store is in the

McAdoo Building,

N. Balser, Manager.

Corner East Market and Davie Streets.

P. S.—The first gentleman entering our doors when we are ready for the opening of our sale, will be presented with a suit of clothing worth $8.00.
